School Crossing Patrol Vacancy

There is currently a vacancy for a school crossing patrol person to assist our pupils across the road before and after school. If you are interested further details can be found on www.worcestershire.gov.uk

If you would like to air your concerns regarding the current lack of a crossing patrol person outside our school you can do so by contacting the local authority on 01905 765765. This will also assist us in our efforts to get this situation rectified as soon as possible.

Uniform

All pupils are now expected to be wearing the compulsory blazer and new tie.

Please ensure all items of uniform are labelled with your child's name.

Thank you.

Pennies for Pudsey

BBC Children in Need is Friday 15th November.

We are asking pupils to bring 1 pence and 2 pence coins into school to fill a picture of Pudsey to raise money for the charity.

Children in Need wristbands and headbands may be worn in school on the day but pupils are expected to remain in full school uniform.

astwood travel lounge

Astwood Travel Lounge is the only fully independent retail travel agents in Redditch. Unlike traditional travel agents we have comfy sofas and chairs for our customers to enjoy and relax with a coffee while our dedicated team work with you to find the ideal family or couples holiday.

Every enquiry we receive, whether for flight only through to a world cruise is thoroughly researched to ensure it has all the elements our customers have asked for.

We are proud to link up with Woodfield Academy and for each holiday booking made through us by any parents of children at Woodfield a donation will be made to school funds.

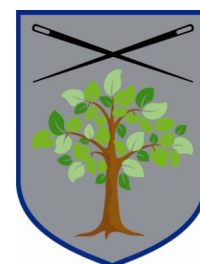

For any bookings made outside of term time we are offering an added incentive which could include free airport parking, free return transfer to local airport or free airport lounge to relax before your journey.

Any bookings made need to quote Woodfield Academy to receive the added extras.
